

Central Jersey Intergroup (CJI)

Central Jersey Intergroup (CJI) is an Alcoholics Anonymous service entity. It is made up of the A.A. groups in the Mercer County area.

- CJI provides local services to alcoholics in the area that individual groups are not able to provide.
- Services provided are listed below
- Contact Info:
  - <http://centraljerseyintergroup.org/>
  - 3525 Quakerbridge Road / Suite 5000 / Hamilton, NJ
  - Mailing address: PO Box 4096, Trenton, NJ 08610
  - (609) 586-6902

Service	Description
Meeting List	The Meeting List Committee publishes and maintains the CJI Meeting List of Alcoholics Anonymous. Its responsibilities include maintaining an accurate listing of registered AA meetings in the CJI area. The meeting list is published and distributed to groups to provide everyone with current information on the meetings in Mercer County and surrounding areas.
Answering Service	The answering service committee maintains the "12 Step" response list and the scheduling of hotline phone commitments. This committee assures that when CJI receives a call for help that someone is there to give the needed help.
Literature	The Literature Committee assures that CJI is stocked with AA approved books and pamphlets. These are sold to groups or individuals at cost in order to provide the AA message to as many people as possible. This committee also helps make the Grapevine©, AA's meeting in print, available to alcoholics. The committee brings assorted literature to CJI functions. Just contact the Literature Committee or stop by the CJI Office to procure literature.
Corrections Facilities	The Correctional Facilities Committee "concern is the 'alcoholic behind-the-walls', whether in a long- or short-term institution". This committee schedules prison commitments and provides information and literature to prisons and other institutions. Volunteers bring AA meetings to the prisons and give alcoholics an introduction to AA on the "outside."
Hospitals & Institutions	The Hospitals & Institutions Committee concern is the alcoholic in a rehab, whether in a long or short-term institution. This committee schedules commitments and provides information and literature to rehabs and other institutions
Web Site	The Web Site committee develops and maintains the CJI Web Site. This includes posting the current CJI meeting list on the Website as well as committee events. The CJI Web Site is your web site and as such, we hope to use it to carry the information that is important to you and your Group. If your Group has an anniversary or special event, please let us know.
Newsletter	The Newsletter Committee puts together and publishes the CJI Newsletter on a bi-monthly basis. Its mission is to provide information on AA related activities in the area. This includes announcements of personal and group anniversaries; list changes prior to the regular publishing of new lists and other information.
Public Information	The goal of AA Public Information is to carry the message to the alcoholic who still suffers. Through informing the general public about the AA program through reaching a third person whose work is or may be involved with the active alcoholic by keeping the Fellowship of AA well-informed, so that members and groups may carry the message more effectively.
Social	The goal of the social committee is to arrange for social events that include families and friends of AA members.
Unity	The Unity Committee schedules and books commitments for CJI representatives to bring information to groups in the area. The purpose is to spread the news of what CJI does.

CJI needs the support from the area AA Groups and members to provide the identified services (in contributions of time and dollars)